

Meet Dr. Peter Stokman

Hometown: Crosby, MN

Specialties: Cardiology

Best part of my work: I feel grateful to be involved in the care and lives of my patients. I thoroughly enjoy what I do.

Why I became a heart doctor:

I have always been fascinated by science and interacting with people. Medicine has been the perfect fit for both.

What I tell my family and friends:

Maintaining a healthy lifestyle and social relationships are key to our health and happiness.

How I spend my free time:

I enjoy winter and summer biking with family and friends, as well as photography and music.
