

Why work in Minnesota

At Allina Health, you not only have a career, you also have a life. And that means time to enjoy all Minnesota and western Wisconsin have to offer you and your family. Whether you value top-notch school systems, urban culture, time outdoors or an internationally-renowned art scene, there are many attractions that make our communities the perfect place to build your career.

Amenities

- Minnesota is home to leading arts institutions, including the famed Guthrie Theater, Walker Art Center, Children's Theater, Minnesota Orchestra, Minneapolis Institute of the Arts and the Frank Gehry-designed Weisman Art Museum.
- Residents enjoy access to 67 state parks, 13 state trails and 62 state forest campgrounds, offering hiking, canoeing, biking, cross-country skiing, rock climbing, snowmobiling and more. In Minneapolis, the park system has been called the best-designed, best-financed and best-maintained in America.
- Minnesota is one of the few states in the U.S. that has a professional sports team in every major sport, including baseball, hockey, football and men's and women's basketball.

Facts

Population: 5.4 million (2013)

Metro area: 2.9 million (2013)

In 2015, Politico named Minnesota at the top of its list of the best states to live in based on per capita income, unemployment, poverty, home ownership, education, life expectancy, infant mortality, obesity, violent crime and other factors.

Several Fortune 500 companies, including Target Corporation, Best Buy, U.S. Bancorp, General Mills and 3M Company, are headquartered in Minnesota.

Renowned for its strong education system, Minnesota has the fourth-highest percentage of adults in the nation (92.4 percent) with a high school degree.

The Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul are consistently ranked among the nation's top metropolitan areas in categories such as air quality, livability, creativity, literacy, entrepreneurial spirit, intellectual base, participation in athletics and healthy pregnancies.

About Allina Health

Allina Health is a not-for-profit health care system dedicated to meeting the lifelong health care needs of communities throughout Minnesota and western Wisconsin. We care for patients through our 90+ clinics, 13 hospitals and wide variety of specialty care services, including technically advanced inpatient and outpatient care, 24-hour emergency care, medical transportation, pharmacy and home and community services. From quality rankings to new technologies and care models, Allina Health is dedicated to making a difference in the lives of our patients, our staff and our communities.

Websites

allinahealth.org

exploreminnesota.com

greatermsp.org

visit-twincities.com

education.state.mn.us